WET 'N WILD!!!

On August 23, 2003, the whole senior class gathered at Joel Orlando's house to start off their senior year with a splash! Among the festivities were volleyball, swimming, a delicious barbeque, and of course, tie-dying! Everybody showed up ready to get wet 'n wild as their reign at WHS began.

Middle Right: The whole senior class unites around the pool to capture this unforgettable memory.

Middle Left: [illegible] and Heidi relax after a tough day of [illegible]
[illegible] Maloney and his [illegible]
Left: Colette, Nicole, Krysti Charlene, Ashley, and Jen all lounge around in [illegible] some mid-day sunning.

The First of The Last...

The Class of 2004 certainly made an appearance for their last first day of their high school careers. They started the morning off by meeting at Body Shapers with decorated cars, tye-dyes, noise makers, and even Dunkin Dounuts. Their day consisted of a free breakfast, an assembly honoring their seniority, and class activities to unite the group. Although they were told to stay completely separated from the rest of the school, some managed to make a dash around the halls. The class of 2004 clearly proved their enthusiasm for the rest of the year!

Dear Seniors,

By the time you've receive this yearbook, it's probably pretty close to graduation. By the time you actually read this, we've probably already graduated! In that case, CONGRATULATIONS!

We've been blessed with the opportunity to learn and grow at a pretty extraordinary high school. WHS has a phenomenal faculty and the brand spankin' new facilities are pretty impressive. But we, the student body, define the school. With an extremely wide range of talents, interests and extracurricular involvement, we're a very diverse group. In many cases, diversity can hinder unity, but we thrived on it. We have a lot to be proud of, and bright futures to look forward to.

I never thought the day would come that we would be seniors, but it did. Despite my efforts to freeze time, it keeps on slipping into the future. I approach the "real world" with anxious, excited anticipation, but I honestly don't think it'll be that different. No matter what is thrown at us, I'm confident that we'll be able to handle it. We all have unique paths ahead of us, but we'll always share a common history.

Class of 2004, thank you for everything. It's been a blast, and it doesn't stop here.

-Tom Dolan

Now that I look back, I've realized school has helped me do one thing better that I wouldn't have learned by now from books and experience: How to sacrifice creativity and originality for unnecessary obedience and the ridiculous platonic philosophy that guides this ex genio corrupt nation.

Thanks to everyone who made these 4 years possible for all of us! O yea, good times! My Raskie boys: VR, SR, OS, DR, all the Azns: DL, Ching Chong, Lee, JY; all the others: MF, AR, JM, PB, Paul T, GA, SH and FS. Nothing would have been this awesome w/o all of u! Taiwan, WV, ME, Germany - nothing better! We've all got our lives in front of us...it's been worth the wait. 2004 is what it's all about. In Nomine Patris, et Filii, et Spiritus Sancti. There is a difference between knowing the path and walking the path. Without pain, without sacrifice, we would have nothing...College? No problemo! Das est gutt;)

Even if I wanted to forget high school, I couldn't. The memories, The hours, The friendships and The tragedies - will be with me for life, and will always remind me of who we are and where we come from. Thank you to the class of 2004, my friends, and my family. You all made me who I am, and I will never forget the days spent together in Westborough. Good luck! And may tomorrow bring you to your destiny.

Dear WHS,

It's not you it's me. The ride has been enjoyable, but it's time to move on. I wish the good times didn't have to end. The truth is, I am moving on with my life. I'm going to college, but you're still in high school, you'll always be in high school. Sure we've had some good times, but also had to work through the rough ones as well. However, since I'm departing for college, I feel like we're traveling up Relationship Creek without a paddle between us. I think it would best, for the both of us, if we decided to see other people. I will miss you.

With bigger and better things to come, this was only a build up to the beginning. You learn so much more than just book smarts within these 4 years, you learn about yourself and others, and whateever else you feel like learning. Some people I used to hate,I'm now good friends with, and some people I used to be good friends with,I now hate, and some people I used to talk to i don't even know anymore. So make of this what you will, but it is only the start. To the crew and the ones who have been down since day 1. LERBHERB, JMAN, OHA, Keep it real boys, you're almost there. A big thanks to all of you for being a part of my American adventure, it's been amazing. I know that it might not have been easy having the annoying foreigner around:) However, I hope you all know how much it meant to me. Also a special thanks to MW and her family for taking such good care of me, and supporting me when i needed it the most. Mamma, Pappa, Benedicte, Frederick; seiv om dere ikke kunne vaere her dette aaret og stoette meg flysisk, saa er det dere jeg kan takke for min evne til aa overkomme alle opp og nedturene. DERE VAR ALLTID i hjertet mitt! Takk for denne once in a lifetime muligheten. Love you!

So many things happened to the Class of 2004 during high school; The Partiots won the Super Bowl and the Red Sox challenged the Yankees along with some other non-sport events. I'll remember those things but something else I'll remember is how all of us changed in response to the nation-changing events Oh yah I'll also remember everything I was taught.

Life went by fast I keep thinking every moment is the last. It's a new beginning a new time who knows what I will find: Walking away from the past to remember for the future, I guess it's something I must get used to. Everything and everyone I have met along the way has helped me to be the man I am today. The light is starting to shine walking leaving footsteps and memories behind an endless amount of time life is what you make it,It's time to see what I will find. Free! Loving life and never pretending to be anything other than the man I was meant to be. Get busy living or get busy lying. HI MOM.

"Two roads diverged in a wood, and I - I took the ones less traveled by, And that has made me who I am - the movie night crew, GBYSO, cross country, ASP - I could not have done it without you. I'll never forget Starbucks runs with my fellow mamacita or puddlejumping for 3 miles in a torrential downpour. To my XC girls - never stop running - DWO. Soprano pride. Robin Hood - thakns for teaching me how to live a little. And to Mom, Dad, & MW - you mean more to me than words could ever express. Boys Soccer: State Champs!

This year, we "lived the dream" and we were angry, happy winners. Thanks for everyone's support! Without you we probably wouldn't have won states. It was truly an incredible and special experience and we hope that anyone who was a part of it also had a great time. Being the best looking team in the school is not important but what was important was the way we worked together, supported each other, and had a lot of fun. The "Del" trio and all the seniors wish next year's team good luck.
-Captains '03

This year's football team certainly had fun year with Captains: Brian Wood, José Cortez, and Bill McGill. Lead by Coach Ellis, the team worked hard all season in both practices and games. Some practices even were held under car headlights. With great leadership and spirit from the fans, football remains a great event.

OKLAHOMA

Rodgers & Hammerstein's Oklahoma was presented March 5th, 6th and 7th in the auditorium. Directed by Liz Smith and Joe Stillitano, the play was a huge success. The cast was incredible and the singing and dancing was great. Each actor was perfect for the role they were cast for. Congrats on a job well done!

Oklahoma, where the wind comes sweepin'
down the plain
And the wavin' wheat
can sure smell sweet
When the wind comes right behind the rain.

In General...

This has been quite the learning experience for me. Despite all of the changes, we still managed to create a yearbook for the Class of 2004. Sometimes change can be for the better and I do believe that the following quote holds to be true for my experience, "Don't fear change, embrace it." First, I'd like to thank my co-editor Charlene, we managed to get through all the stress! To Alex and Krysti, thanks for putting on a great holiday ball and for all of your help with everything! Thanks to the staff, you guys had the ability to pick up everything so quickly, your hard work has really paid off! Thanks to the office staff, guidance secretaries, tech staff, administration, Mr. Hebert, and Ms. Kimball for all of their help. A very BIG thank you to Shev for taking on this crazy and stressful process. You have been wonderful and we couldn't have done it without you! KJC - no words to describe how thankful I am. A very special thanks to my friends and my family for keeping me sane during this stressful process...I truly could not have done it without you. I love you all! Good Luck Class of 2004!

-Ali Lewinter '04

During my Junior year when I found out that I was going to be a general editor of the yearbook, I decided that I wanted to be the yearbook "B". But as my Senior year progressed, I learned very quickly that I was the yearbook's "B". But overall, it has been an enjoyable experience. Even though the job brought some stress, it also brought a good share of fun. Yearbook has given me some memories that I'll never forget. From our wonderful field trip to I-Party to Holiday Ball. Fun times guys! Fun times! Ms. Shevory, thank you for being our advisor, I know we must have been a bit of a pain. You were wonderful. Ali, thanks for being a great co-editor. Alex, the past 2 years have been great. Krysti, you made yearbook so much more fun. Thanks Bunches. Mr. Perryman, thanks for letting us ask you more than 3 questions, I really appreciated it. Mr. P, watch your back, you never know when we will attack. I'd also like to thank the '03-'04 yearbook staff, you guys are great. Good luck to next year's editors and staff. GOOD LUCK 2004! Don't forget, life's too short to be ordinary.

~Charlene Tebo '04

Takin' Care o' Business

What can I say? This year has been a crazy one for the Yearbook staff. Computer malfunctions, no team pictures, impossible deadlines, and in general stressful chaos! But it has been a lot of fun and an awesome experience. I want to say a personal "thank you" to all of the wonderful people behind the scenes. Mr. Dias, Ms. Shevory, Mr. Kane, all of our great Janitors, the front office staff, the Tech. department, and everyone else who has been so supportive. Krysti, my partner in crime, you are so SUPER! Holiday Ball was a lot of fun; chillin at I-Party, losing my keys, hanging up those hundred stars.... What more is there to say? I couldn't have done it without you. I will never forget my better-dressed-better-half! Ali, and Char - kudos to you for putting up with what you did! As for the staff, you guys did a great job this year and I am very proud of what we have acomplished, especially with our limited means for achieving our goals! Good luck Juniors for next year, i know you will be great! Class of 2004, don't forget there is more to this world than what you have known so far...

~Alex Rogers-Camp '04

Now that yearbook's over, "I just don't know what to do with myself". Being the only editor who was not on the staff last year, this seemed like a big job to take on. However with my fellow editors being so supportive, the year was a lot easier. I was named the yearbook hero, and quickly discovered that my power was invisiblity. All those trips to I-Party for decorations and thousands or stars, I wonder what those people thought when we came in. Going on a wonderful yearbook field trip and not paying attention to anything but our future husbands. At least we got some cool pens out of the deal. Alex, its almost over, just gotta hand these babies out! Ali, it's been a blast. Charlene, you've made the stressful times fun and the fun times funner!! Thanks for all the laughs and tears. Ms. Shevory, thanks for agreeing to advice us and putting up with us this year. Mr. P ... just wait, and make sure to keep one eye open. To the staff, thanks for working to get the yearbook done. Next years staff: Don't forget about PICAS!! Good luck next year!

~Krysti Surprenant '04

The Picture Pro

A huge thanks to Janice Barton for becoming a pro at the digital camera and taking most of the pictures for the yearbook! We truly appreciate all of your hard work!

The Advisor

A very special thanks to Ms. Shevory (The Shev) for all of her hard work and taking on this stressful activity. We could not have done it without you!

Your adventures are just beginning Congratulations!

Love, Mom, Dad, & Nathaniel

I'll love you forever,
I'll like you for always,
As long as I'm living
My baby you'll be.

Congratulation Alex! Mom, Dad and Erin

Where does the time go?
So many wonderful memories created
and so many yet to come....

Here's to wishing you
the best possible life
full of love, health,
and happiness....

We Love You So Much
and We're So Proud of the Beautiful Person
You Are.

Love You!

DAN

When you were just a little boy,
Your most valued possession was a toy

Now you are older and much more wise,
And you have surely come to realize

That family and friends are the treasures of life,
Which help you deal with stress and strife

To others you give freely of your time and love,
And rewards have come back to you from above

While the next phase of your life is unknown,
We are sure of one thing, you won't be alone

Your smile and humor will always impress,
But the quality we value in you the best

Is your sincerity and kindness to all people abroad,
And your ability to give without expecting reward

Continue this path that you have charted yourself,
A fortune in friendships will be your great wealth

Ashleen,

I am so proud of you; of your loyalty,
your deep friendships, your wisdom and humor,
your crazy energy, your capacity to love.

Be who you are and say what you feel,
because those who mind don't matter
and those who matter don't mind.

You will always have my unconditional love.

Mom

From Kindergarten to Graduation

You've given us such happiness
And pride in all you've done.
We wish you love, health, and success
Our friend, our special son.

We love you - Mom, Dad, and Marti

Dear Rob,
To our happy, tiredless, complicated,
Strong willed little boy.
You have only just begun...
Rock On.

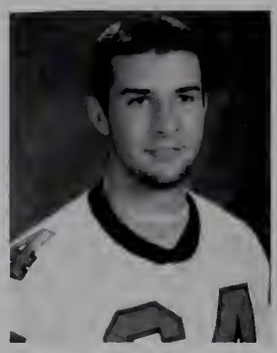
David,
Congratulations to "my sunshine!" You have brightened my life, and brought me more joy and happiness than I could have ever imagined.

You have worked very hard, and should be very proud of all you have accomplished. Reach for your hopes and dreams, and may they all come true!
Love,
Mom



Dear Kait - We are so proud of you!
You are now on your way- what more can we say?
Wherever you go, whatever you do, what choices you will make,
It is just this thing called "life" and the path you are about to take.
Go now and seek all adventures in this world and don't wait
Now is the time to go out and discover whatever will be your fate.
But always remember and know in your heart, Kait -
That we think you are truly special and absolutely great!

You can be anybody you want to be you can love whomever you will.
You can travel any country where your heart leads and you know we will love you still.

You can live by yourself, you can gather friends round
you can choose one special one.
And the only measure of you words & your deeds is the love you leave behind when you're done.

Don't be rattled by names, by taunts, by games
but seek out spirits true.
You can dream all the day never reaching the end of everything possible for you.

From our little Budgie to all grown up...Stay true to yourself and never lose your individuality as you go on your way and share your gifts with the world.
We love you!
Mom, Dad, Ian, Toby

Sometimes you think that you need to be perfect, that you cannot make mistakes.
At these times you put so much pressure on yourself.
I wish you would realize that You are a human being, like everyone else capable of reaching great potential,but not capable of being perfect.
So please~ just do your best and realize that this is enough.
Don't compare yourself to Anyone. Be happy to be the WONDERFUL, UNIQUE, VERY SPECIAL PERSON THAT YOU ARE.
